

I'm Just Sayin'

They've torn Portland all to pieces, let Chicago go to hell
There's people leaving New York City like they rang the fire bell
They call themselves enlightened but cancel those who don't agree
I wish all these folks who claim they're woke would just go back to sleep

Chorus:

I'm just sayin' Have we all lost our minds?
I'm just sayin' where do we draw the line
I know ya'll think it takes balls to be singin' what I'm singin'
But I'm just sayin' I'm just sayin' what you're thinking

I believe in live and let live, we're all free to each their own
If you were born a he, but want to be a she
Do your thing but leave my kids alone

<Chorus>

We send 'em off to college to get 'em educated
They send 'em back to us indoctrinated
And how much are we payin'?

I'm just sayin' Have we all lost our minds?
I'm just sayin' where do we draw the line
No offense but common sense
Is the direction that I'm leanin'
Some of y'all think it takes balls to be singin' what I'm singin'
But I'm just sayin' I'm just sayin' what you're thinking

Yeah, what you're thinkin'
